Welcome to the Club!

Hello and welcome to the Oldie Moldies Club and newsletter! This is a club I started for friends and fans. Being an “Oldie Moldie” is not about physical appearance – it’s about the feeling that “yeah, I’ve been around the block a time or two and I’ve seen some stuff.” It’s a way to bring self-proclaimed “Goobers” like myself together to celebrate that we are getting through life one day at a time with a little bit of laughter. When I made the initial video saying the club involved us “walking around, day drinking, and gossiping about the town” for fun that was just an idea but the club can be whatever we want it to be. You don’t have to be the best at anything to be in this club you just have to hangout, bring a great beverage, and have something to say about what that interests you.

My last minute Halloween costume back in, oh, I can’t remember, 2017/2018?? I threw on my “Oshkosh Grandparents” sweatshirt I bought, put my silver painted hair in curlers, made myself a fake Life Alert necklace, and carried around those knock-off caramel hard candies. You’ve probably seen this character on my Instagram/TikTok videos – I love her!

Finding A Logo

I knew right off the bat I would need help creating a logo for this newsletter. I know my way around a basic video editing system and Microsoft Word but I can’t create logos. I’m actually not a super huge fan of technology because it changes too fast - I can’t keep up! But I knew you guys, my fellow club members, would be the creative types so I enlisted your help.

You guys did not disappoint – over 100 submissions were sent in via Instagram DMs, TikTok, and emails.

I love the logo y’all picked but I felt the need to highlight the two runner-ups below on the next page! Thank you for the submissions, thank you for voting, and thank you for the all the creativity and support y’all bring!

This is a picture of her and I in a dumpster at college. Why? Because that’s the type of friends/roommates we are haha

How It All Began

The idea came to me for the video but also the club in general when I was visiting an old college friend. Moving back to my hometown I hadn’t seen her in quite sometime. We spend a two-day weekend laughing and catching up with one another about our own lives as well as some of the people we used to hang out with. We spent the whole Saturday day drinking in her front lawn and lounging in camping chairs while we listened to throwback songs and by the time Sunday rolled around we both needed midday naps.

She lived in a cul-de-sac so we took a stroll outside while commenting on her opinions of her neighbors, the architecture of their homes/yards, and how we both needed to stretch more. Cut to us attempting to do cartwheels in her front lawn at 9 in the morning. LMAO

I missed hanging out with her and the fact that we could turn doing nothing, essentially, into such a good time. I thought if we could just do this as a weekly thing, like a club, then that would be awesome and the first name that came to my mind was the “Oldie Moldies”

Interview With @Sarahjanewelchdesigns

Sarah Jane is the winner of the Oldie Moldies newsletter logo contest!

How did you come up with your design for the logo?

SJ: I've followed you since your video featuring a cactus which made me laugh out loud on what was, up until that point, a very sad day. Your confidence inspires me daily! When you mentioned the Old Moldies Club it reminded me of a pact that my friends and I have made, that when we are oldies, we will race around on mobility scooters, wearing purple and shouting at the pigeons. I couldn't help but include a mobility scooter in the image, and of course, the cactus represents the video all those months ago.

What do you do as a job?

SJ: I am a surface pattern designer, art and design has been my life long passion. I adore working with indie brands, work-from-home-mums, and small companies. I enjoy working from home myself, wearing pajamas. I've worked in many areas of design but my heart has found its home in surface pattern - especially fabric! I adore designing fabric! There is nothing better!

Tell me a little bit about yourself!

SJ: I live by the sea on the South Coast of England with my husband, my son, my daughter, and our three legged cat. Oh, and I don't like pickles!

Old Facts About Random Stuff

- In the 1800's tomato sauce was sold as medicine
- The oldest pair of socks is believed to be found in Egypt and date back to 300-500 A.D.
- The longest running Broadway show is "The Phantom of the Opera"
- The State Theater in Iowa is one of the oldest running movie theaters in the world.

The Essentials

Any good walk around the block needs a few key items:

- Comfy Walking Shoes: No high heels, no dancing shoes – something with a good sole where your heel won't slip. I have some slip-ons I got from Payless before they closed.
- A Good Playlist Or Podcast! I personally love to listen to something while I walk and my top three podcasts right now are: "Smartless", "The Basement Yard", and "Creative Counsel with Brittany Ratelle" – all available on Apple podcasts
- A Refreshing Drink: Water, coffee, tea, etc. I, myself, love iced coffee all year round but if I have to hang onto a cup while I walk I'll go for a nice hot chocolate. Or to brighten up my bottle of water I'll add some drops of MiO which is a "liquid beverage mix". The mango flavor is my favorite!
- Sunglasses/Hat: How are you gonna people watch while you stroll if you don't have some dark shades on or a snug baseball cap?! Both are ESSENTIALS! Haha
- A friend! It's always nice to get out and exercise with a friend or loved one. Don't forget to grab your masks and try and keep a social distance!

Have A Happy And Safe Halloween!

Last year I went as an undercover, rookie detective that got sent to the Chicago suburbs on a spring break trip during a snow storm...

Strengths : Great mustache, loves beer, rad fanny pack

Weaknesses : Kept handcuffing myself to things

The fun is in the details haha

Stay safe, go for a walk, and have a great week! 😊

take a good nap.”
